

Sutton Sparks Choir Conductors

Sutton Music Trust are seeking inspirational and engaging vocal tutors to lead our brand-new Sparks Choirs – satellite choirs based in Sutton primary schools to develop the next generation of singers across the borough.

To apply, complete an application form found on our website:

www.suttonmusictrust.org.uk/work-with-us

We are looking for individuals who:

- Can inspire young singers to develop a lifelong love of music making.
- Plan and deliver inclusive, exciting, and engaging rehearsals for large groups with a range of abilities.
- Selects repertoire which represents a wide range of genres, contexts, and styles.
- Can communicate effectively with a range of participants and stakeholders.
- Can assess student progress to inform future planning.

In return, we offer:

- A wide-ranging programme of CPD which tutors are invited to.
- Opportunities for further teaching across a range of age groups and settings.
- Access to a range of performance opportunities working in partnership with external organisations.

Sutton Music Trust is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. All tutors are expected to share and uphold this commitment.

If you are passionate about singing and inspiring children and young people to sing with energy and enthusiasm, we would love to hear from you!

Location: As required across the London Borough of Sutton

Status: Self-employed

Sutton Sparks Project Fee: £45.00 per hour

Interviews will take place on the following dates:

Wednesday 6th May, Tuesday 16th June and Wednesday 17th June

As part of the interview process, we would like you to lead a short vocal workshop (approx. 20 minutes) for KS2 singers, including a technical warm-up and teaching of a short song. This will be followed by a formal interview.
